Brothers and Sisters,

The Elliott Investment Management group reached out to the leadership from the Transport Workers Union International to schedule a meeting with the TWU Local presidents that represent Southwest Airlines employees. That meeting took place on Tuesday, July 16, between the Elliott group, TWU International leadership, TWU 550 President Kevin Thurston, TWU 556 President Bill Bernal, and myself.

The meeting allowed for dialogue regarding our concerns with current operational realities in addition to concerns with potential outcomes and motives. Elliott Investment Management have also contacted the other unions on property and there may be additional meetings in the future. The goal is that these meetings would provide further opportunities for each group to become more familiar with all the perspectives involved and to ensure our membership is represented.

I will continue to communicate information as it develops.

In Solidarity,

Abilio Villaverde
President
