ELECTION COMMITTEE

The TWU Local 555 Election Committee exists to ensure the integrity of our election process as outlined by our Bylaws, and the TWU Constitution. The Local is accepting letters of interest and resumes for all Members interested in joining this committee. The position is considered an as-needed position within our Local, and qualified candidates must be willing to travel when required.

We are looking to add one Member to this committee, and those Members who are interested should understand the following qualifications:

- Must be a TWU Local 555 Member in good standing.
- Must be able and willing to travel on an "as needed" basis.
- Must have professional phone etiquette.
- Must have strong written and verbal communication skills.
- Must be willing and able to work both independently, and with a team.
- Must have a full understanding of our election process, as outlined in our bylaws and the TWU Constitution.

Interested and qualified Members should submit a letter of interest and accompanying resume to the TWU 555 office at Frontdesk@twu555.org with the subject line "Election Committee Letter of Interest & Resume." Once emailed, please call and confirm that your letter and resume were received. All letters and resumes should be submitted no later than 9/06/24.

Abilio Villaverde
President
