WORKING WOMEN'S COMMITTEE

We are now accepting letters of interest from Members in good standing in District 1, District 2, District 6, District 7, District 8 and District 9, who are willing and interested in serving on the TWU Local 555 Working Women's Committee.

The goal of this committee is to educate women on the advantages of being part of a Union as well as support and offer guidance for those women who choose to take on leadership roles within their Local and the challenges that may arise. The Committee helps advocate for and support women's health and mental wellness and will also provide opportunities to network and build relationships with other locals.

This is an as-needed position and qualified candidates must be willing and able to travel, when required for the performance of Committee duties, in addition to the following duties and qualifications:

- Capable of working both independently, and as part of a team.
- Must have the ability to communicate effectively by both verbal and written means.
- Ability to foster positive morale.
- Ability to research, learn and educate members on workplace protections.
- Experience as a Union representative is preferred however, not required.

Those wishing to apply should send a letter of interest detailing your reasons, and qualifications for applying to the position. Once emailed, please call and confirm that your letter and resume were received. All letters and resumes should be submitted no later than 9/6/24.

Abilio Villaverde
President
