COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE

We are now accepting resumes and letters of interest from Members in good standing who are capable, willing, and interested in serving on the new TWU Local 555 Communications Committee. The Communications Committee will be responsible for creating content and various forms of communications as directed to inform our Members and increase engagement.

These are not entry level positions and successful candidates will have relevant experience with at least some of the following mediums in addition to having recent examples of work demonstrating proficiency with Adobe Creative Cloud (Photoshop, Illustrator, Premiere, InDesign, etc.) In addition to the specific qualifications listed, all positions require a strict attention to detail, ability to maintain confidentiality, and strong time management skills.

The Communications Committee will be comprised of many roles and may include:

- WEBSITE ADMINISTRATOR: Must be able to design, edit, maintain, and have the ability to hand code when necessary.
- PHOTOGRAPHER: Must have experience with high-end digital cameras and equipment for event, editorial, portrait photography, and editing for screen and print.
- VIDEOGRAPHER: Must have experience with digital video and editing using a variety of high-end equipment and techniques.
- GRAPHIC DESIGNER/NEWSLETTER EDITOR: Responsible for creating vector graphics for screen and print, document design, layout, and creation. Also, editing for grammar, spelling, punctuation, and consistency. Must possess excellent writing skills.

These are as-needed positions and Members of the committee must be willing to travel when required in the performance of their duties.

Those who are interested in representing our Membership on this level, need to submit a letter of interest including contact information, qualifications, and reasons for applying, to the TWU Local 555 Office via email at frontdesk@twu555.org by 9/23/24.
